

AND I STILL FLY

elevating kids. always.

I'm a Different Butterfly - Discussion Sheet 12 Questions for You and Your Kid(s) to Discuss

What does being different mean to you?

What do you think is different about you from others?

How do you think other kids see the difference you just mentioned?

Why is having friends who are different from you a good thing?

Think of someone who is different, in some way, than you. What do you and that person have in common?

How do you think it makes someone feel if you don't like them because they are different from you?

How would you feel if others expressed that they didn't like you because they feel you are different than them?

Say... "Nature made me, me." Say it again... "Nature made me, me." What does this mean to you?

What does it mean to appreciate others?

How are you and your best friend different?
(Best friends can be another child, imaginary, pets, a grandparent, etc.)

How are you and your best friend the same?

What do you do to make new friends?